

GLOBAL HORIZONS

Volume 7 Issue 3
December 10, FRIDAY, 2010

Reporters
Sheena Kim
Cruise Lee

Advisors
Kendra Moore
Todd A. Terhune

globalcollege.hannam.ac.kr | globalhorizons.lgc@gmail.com

Linton Global College

CHRISTMAS EDITION!

In this Issue:

Find out the true meaning of Christmas and learn what students really want this special Holiday Season!

Enjoy!

And...

Special points of interest:

- Unwrapping Christmas
- Say What!?!
- A Christmas Event

MERRY CHRISTMAS!!!

MERRY CHRISTMAS!!!

UNWRAPPING CHRISTMAS by LF & Kendra Moore

Stars on brightly lit Christmas trees, jingle bells, candy canes, red & white, mistletoe, sleigh bells, Christmas Carols, feasts, wrappings and trimmings of Christmas with family and friends. The feeling is warm and there is love and charity in the air. People are more willing to forgive and to start anew this Holiday Season.

Photo taken from christinchristmas.com

This is the Christmas Spirit!

Let's take a deeper look at the heart of the matter behind the bells and smells and boxes and bows.

Many people may think that Christmas is all about a big jolly Santa

Photo taken from michellesingleton.com

Clause who gives presents to little children, but the truth is...

Christmas is about Christ. It's about the best present of all.

Christmas is about how God gave his only begotten son to us, on this very special day to save the world.

Santa's gifts are given upon the condition that you are a good little boy or girl... naughty or nice... but God sent Jesus His gift of love to save all of us from sin and death...

With Santa, coal or a present would be given to young children based off of whether they were good or bad for the year. However, God gave Jesus to us, as our savior no matter what condition we are in - whether we are naughty or nice; God's love for us is unconditional.

That is why; He gave his only son, Jesus, to us.

Photo taken from Listzblog.com

“For God so loved the world that he gave his only son, that who ever believeth on him, shall not perish but have everlasting life (John 3:16)”

And that - is the true meaning of Christmas. Christ's love for us.

The joy of Christmas is given to us all. You only have to receive it!

It's a present! Open it up - and enjoy.

SAY WHAT?!? WHAT DO YOU WANT FOR CHRISTMAS!

by Sheena

Christmas is for love, laughter, joy, for giving and sharing, and for reuniting with family and friends. It is already the month of December and people are busy decorating their homes with beautiful Christmas decorations, huge trees with stars, beautifully wrapped presents, and preparing cookies for Santa Claus.

But students in Linton Global College are stressing over Final Exams and presentations. But somewhere inside them, they are eagerly waiting for Santa Claus. The English Cafe, where LGC students study, relax, and have parties and events, is decorated with a Christmas tree and beautiful decorations. Since the semester is almost over, students are also getting ready to leave to their homes after all the tests and exams.

Some students are leaving Daejeon to their hometowns and some are going back abroad.

Global Horizon interviewed a few LGC students to find out what they want for Christmas.

GH: What do you want for Christmas?

Sarah: For Christmas, I want a boyfriend so I can spend time with him and go on a date with him. I want to spend a white Christmas with someone I like.

Margaret: For Christmas, I want to have money so that I can go on endless shopping, eat at fancy restaurants, and spend a wonderful time with my friends.

Veronica: Since I can't spend time with my boyfriend during Christmas because he has to go to military training, I wish that I can spend time with him. Also I want expensive make up and perfume that smells good.

Emma: For Christmas, I want a smart phone because nowadays everyone has a smart phone and this phone is very good because I can go on the internet anywhere, text freely with people who have smart phones, and shop online.

Hoon: I want white snow in Christmas and I want to spend this wonderful time with my lovely girlfriend.

Gerrard: For Christmas, all I want to do is to spend time with my girlfriend and make unforgettable white Christmas memories.

Jaime: For Christmas I wish for happiness because nothing is valuable unless you are happy. I want everyone to be happy and to have a lovely time.

GH hopes that everyone has a wonderful and warm Christmas and a happy new year~

Thank You for Reading
Global Horizons.

CHRISTMAS EVENT FOR ORPHANAGE by Cruise

student had regular meetings and practiced for this occasion.

LGC students decorated the chapel in the orphanage and had rehearsals. By decorating the church, people could feel the Christmas atmosphere.

LGC students held an early Christmas Event for children of Chun-Yang-Won, an orphanage in Daejeon, on December 4th.

When the event started, the children were very happy. Before the performances, Dr. Dong-Ho Shin, Dean of LGC, and En-Young Lee, President of Chun-Yang-Won, gave a speech. After two speeches, Eric oh prayed and then the performance began.

LGC students showed various performances and played fun games with the children. Moreover, Prof. Todd who dressed up as Santa Clause gave gifts for each child.

There were a total of 14 LGC (Linton Global College) students who prepared for the event. Every fore the performances, Dr. Dong-Ho Shin, Dean of LGC, and En-Young Lee, President of Chun-Yang-Won, gave a speech. After two speeches, Eric oh prayed and then the performance began.

the children. The children liked Santa Clause (aka Professor Todd) very much and were endeared to him. Santa Clause gave gifts to the children and they were very happy.

This event was part of the Event Management class taught by Professor Louisa Kim. Students taking the class had to prepare for the event and other students helped in its success.

There was a magic show, singing, and a body motion speed game. The children enjoyed all of these events.

The highlight of the evening was the gift-giving for

